Nonprofit Management

Co-sponsored by CompassPoint Nonprofit Services

Successfully managing a nonprofit organization requires the ability to combine practical management techniques with the vision to strategically plan for long-term goals. Whether you are currently working in a nonprofit or considering a career change to the nonprofit sector, SJSU's Nonprofit Management Certificate program, co-sponsored by CompassPoint Nonprofit Services, provides you with the solid foundation necessary for success.

Whether you are interested in working in the arts, education, social services, health care or for religious organizations, SJSU's Nonprofit Management Certificate offers you many opportunities to fulfill your career objectives.
